

FIGURE 1

663040-11000000

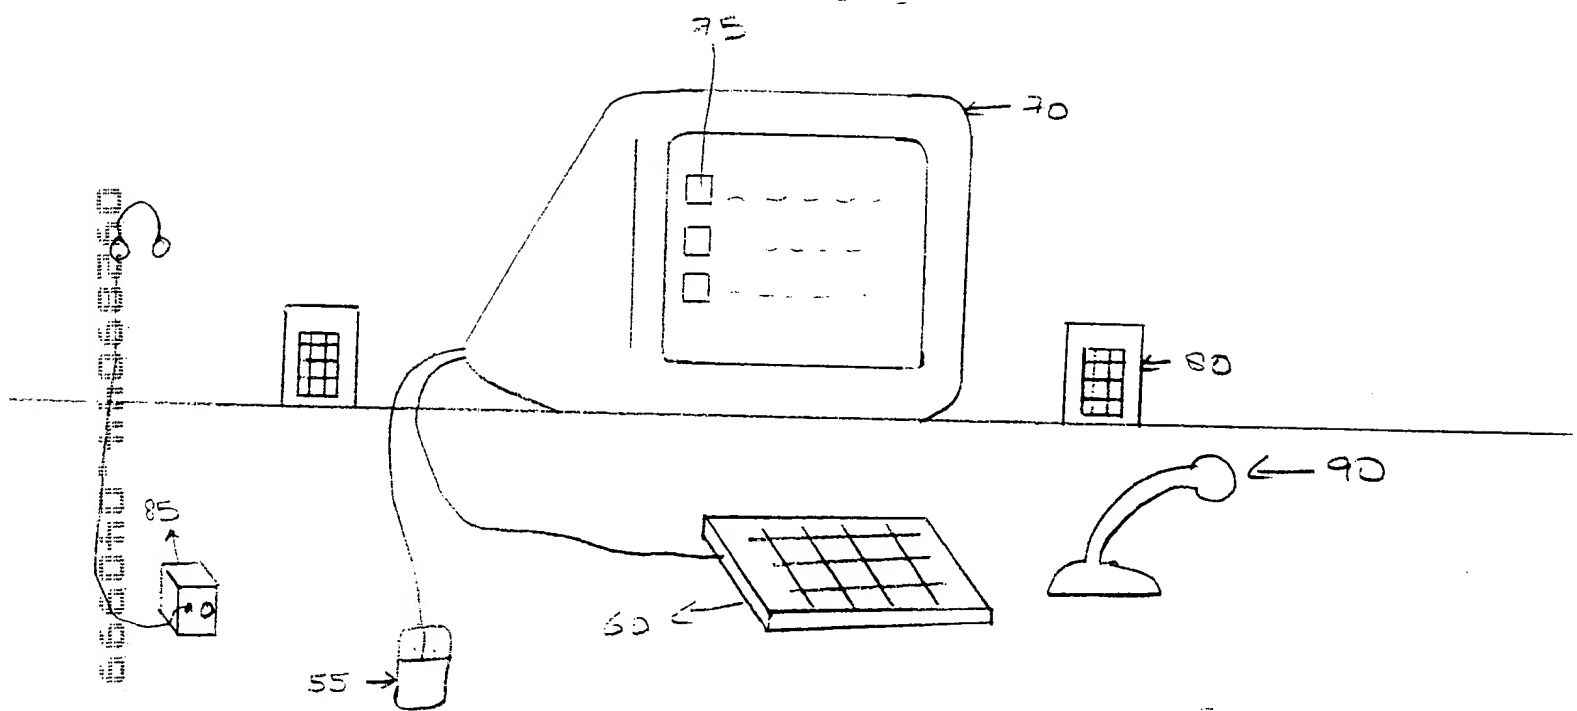

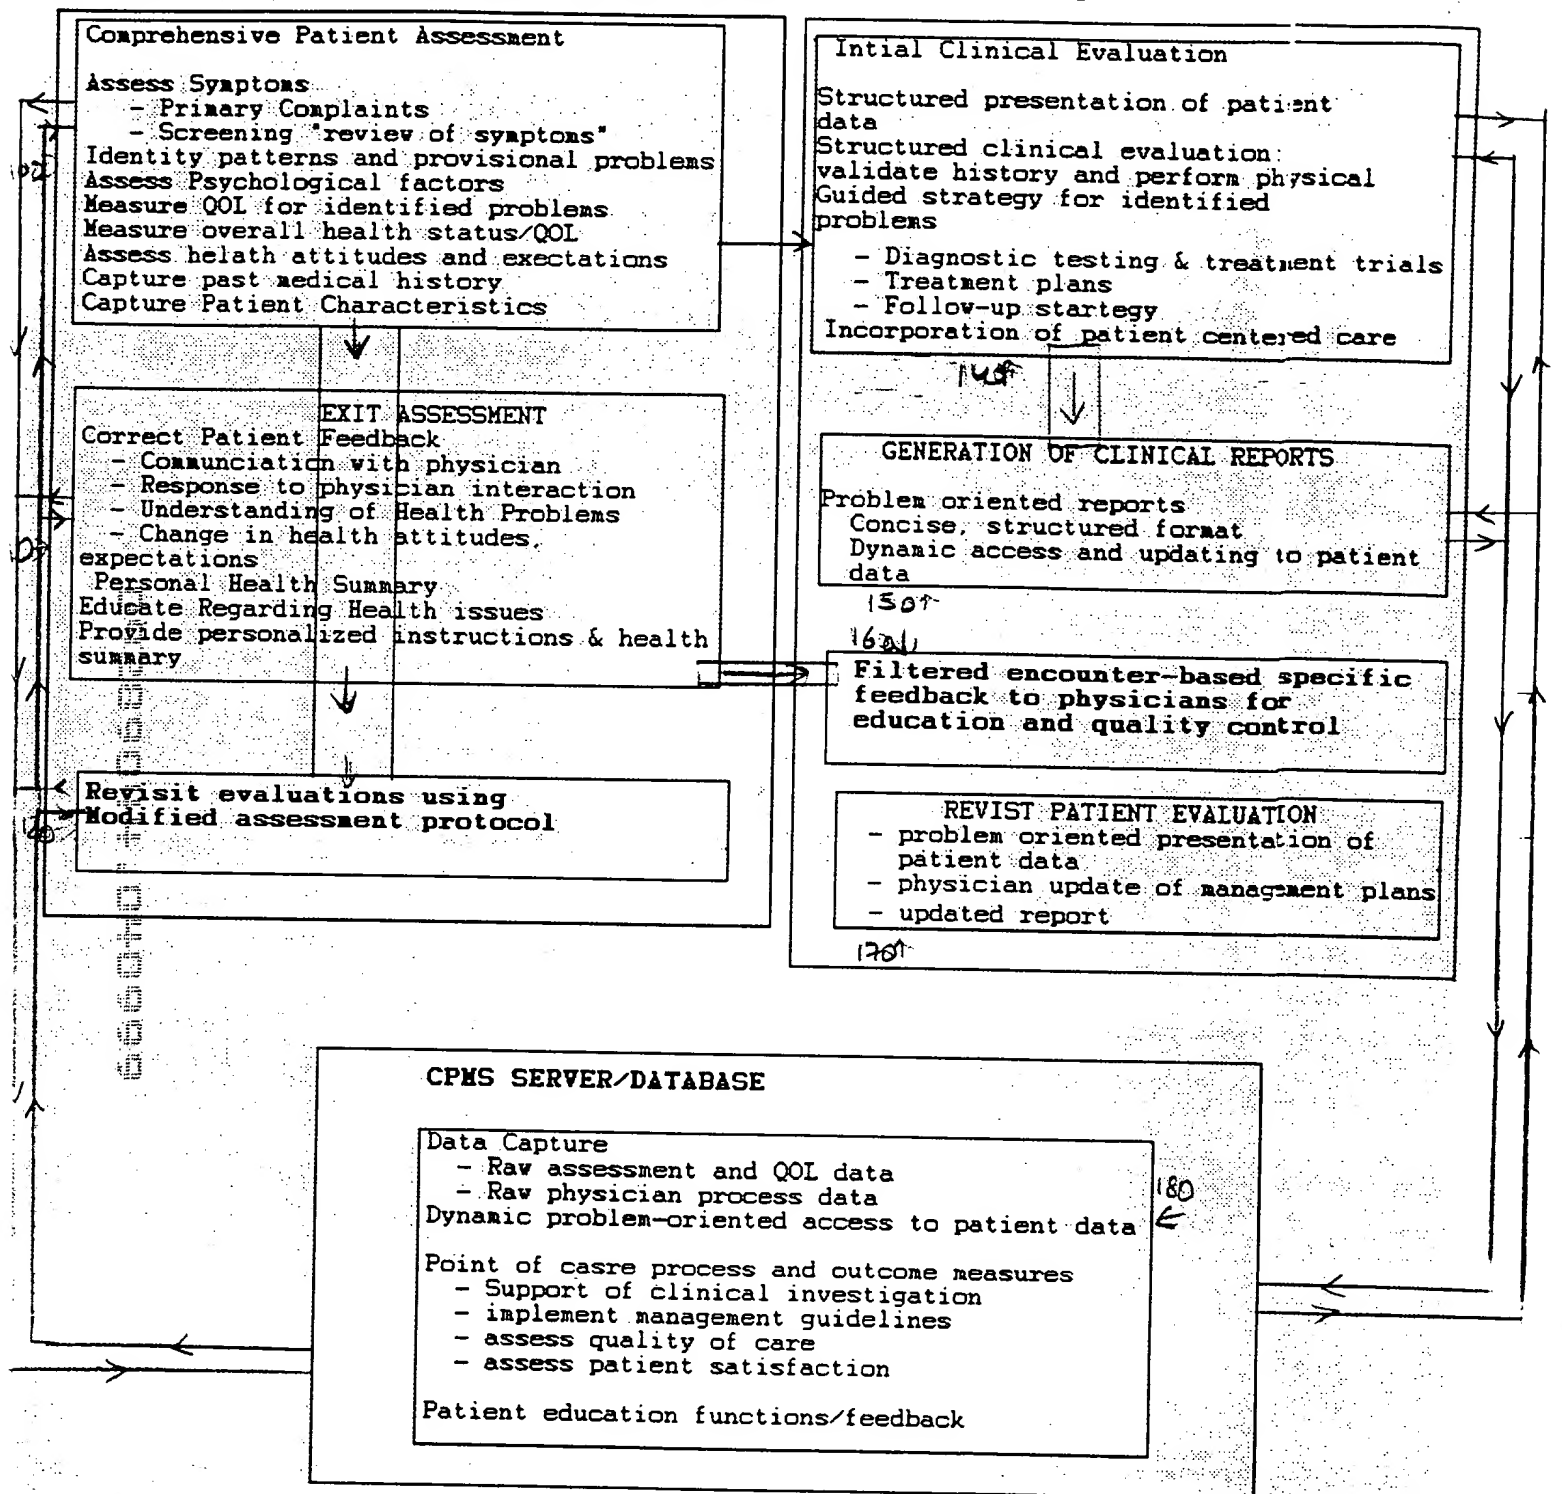

FIGURE 2

FIG. 3 CPMS-implemented CAPM

THE PATIENT EXPERIENCE AT CPMS PATIENT CARE MODULE

PHYSICIAN MANAGEMENT PROCESS AT CPMS PHYSICIAN MODULE

Patient Flow ↓

Information Flow ←

FIGURE 4 A

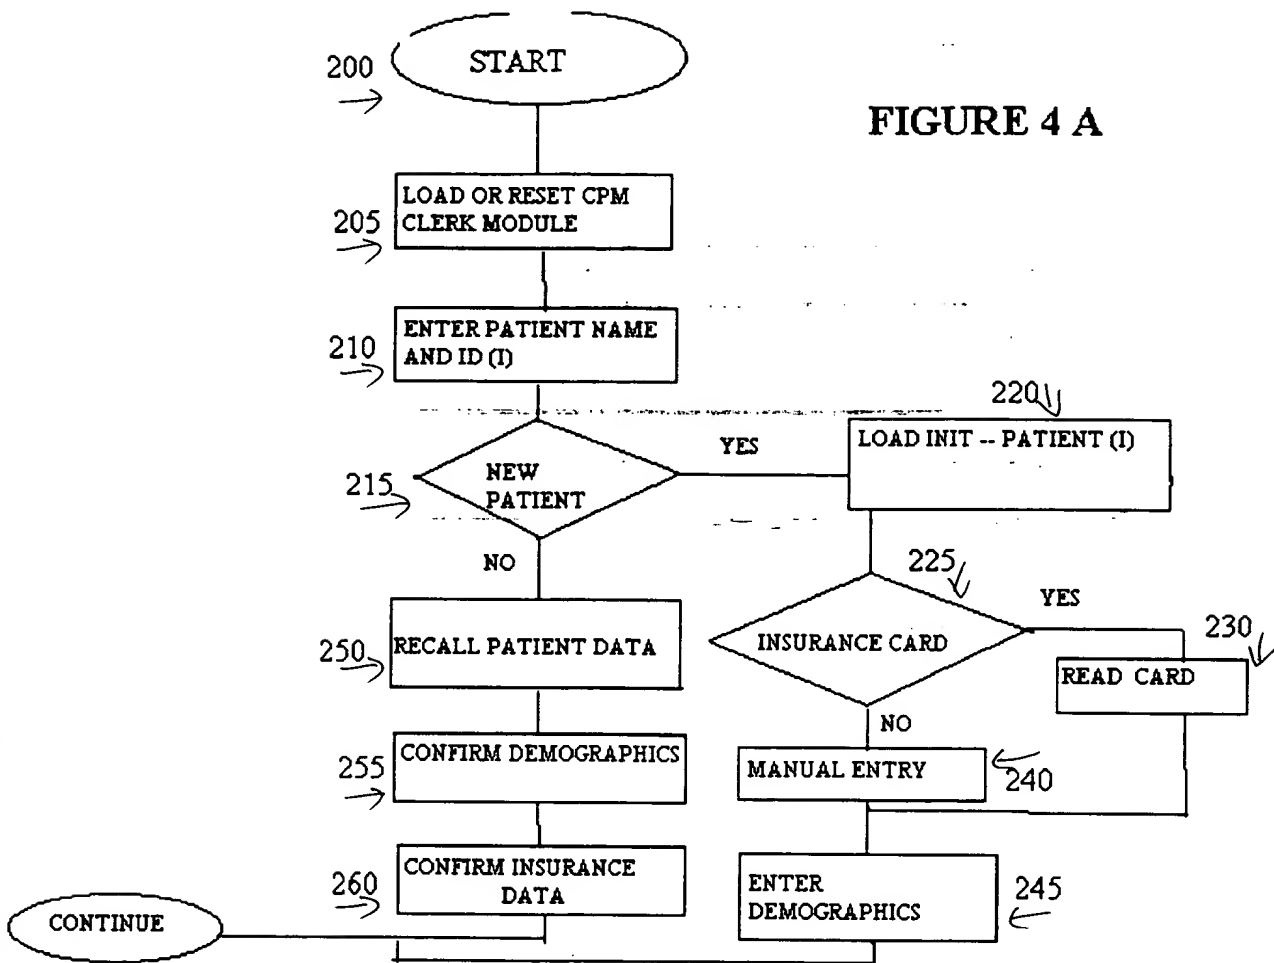

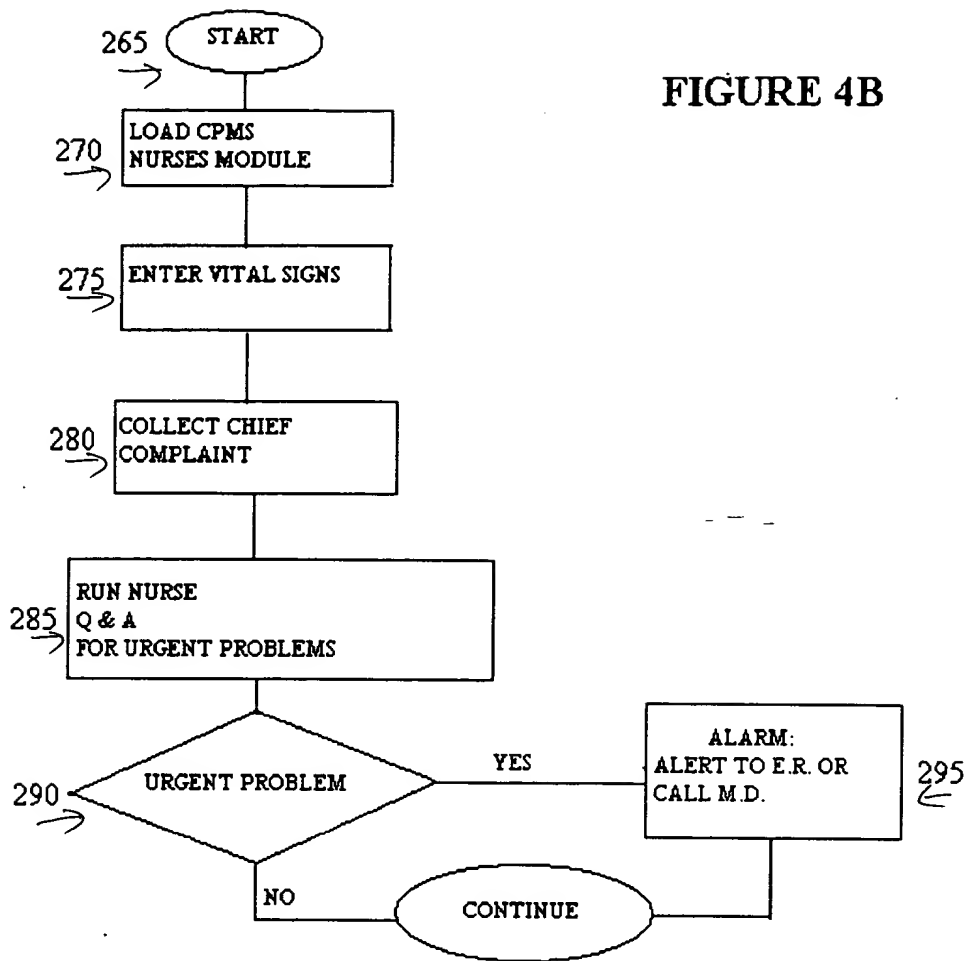

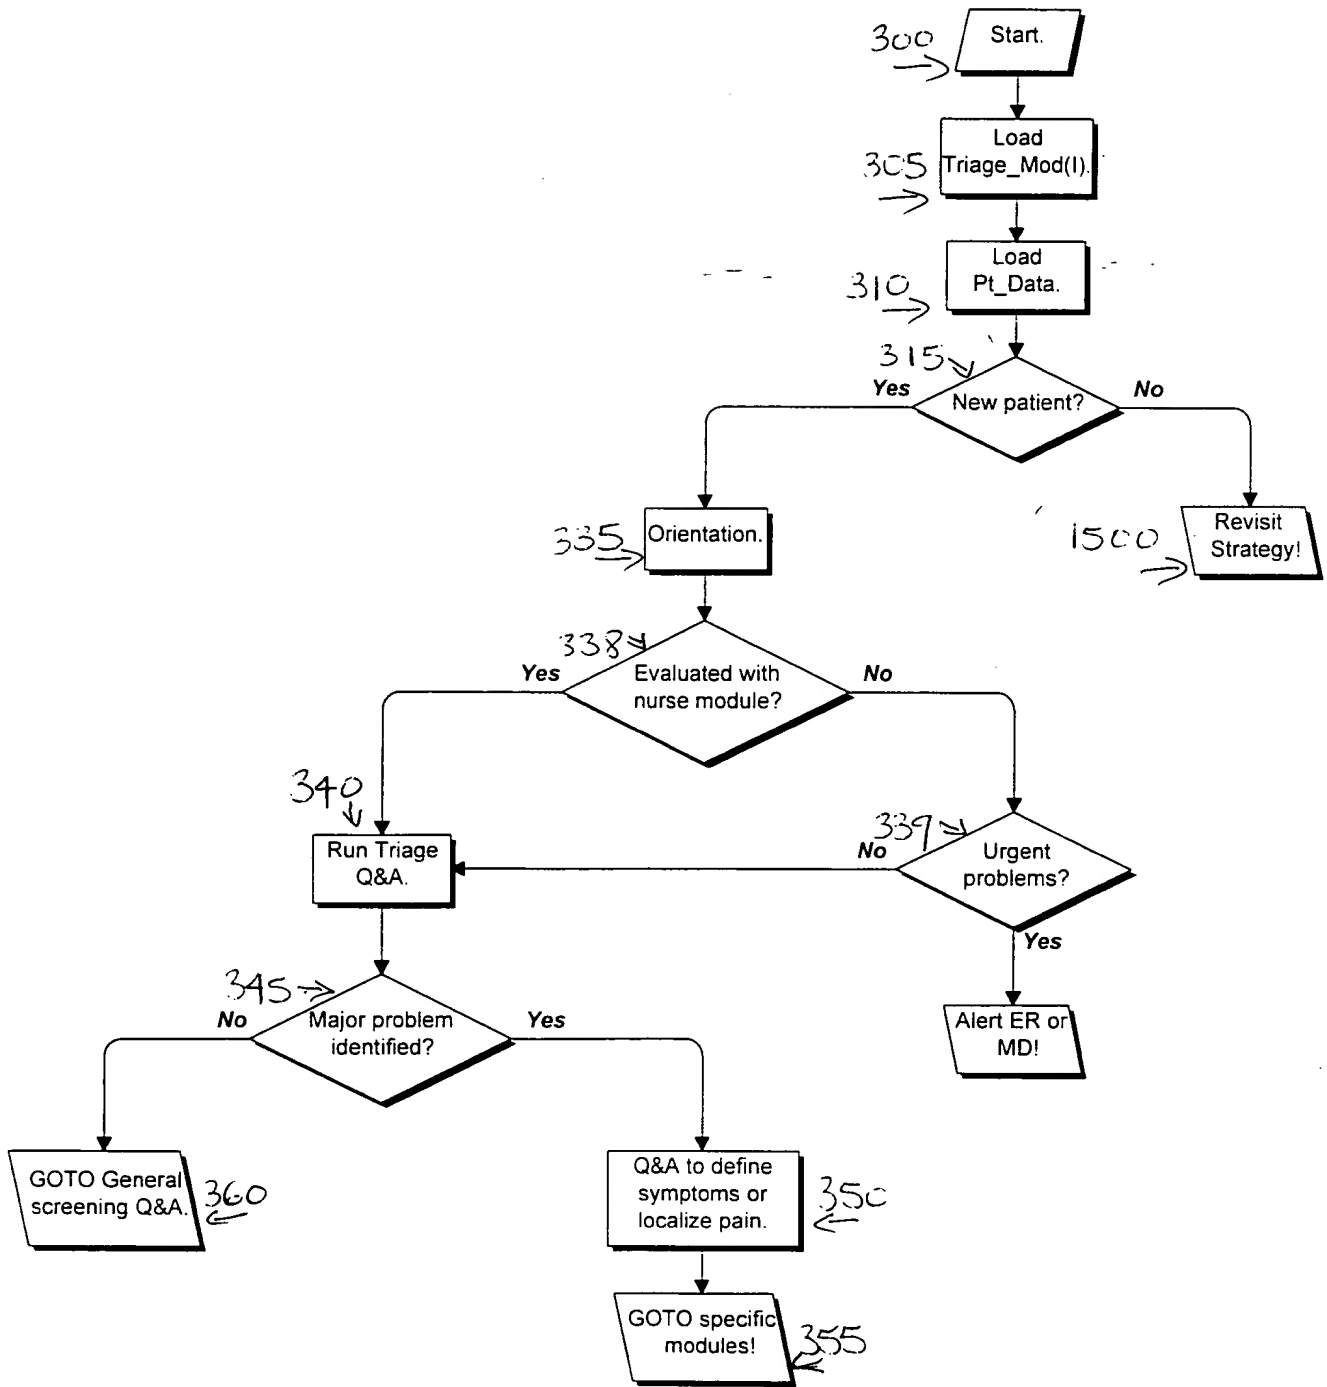

FIGURE 4B

Patient Carrel.

66000-1100000

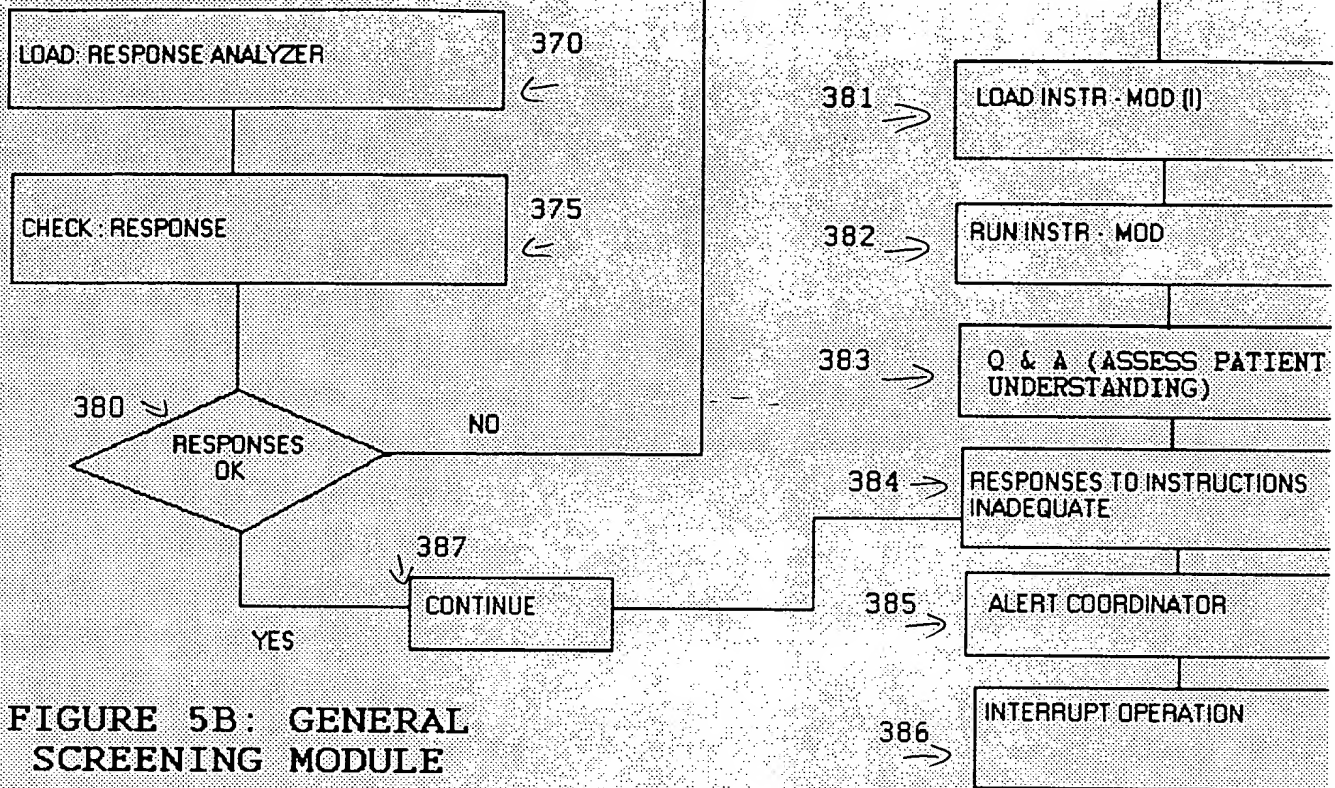

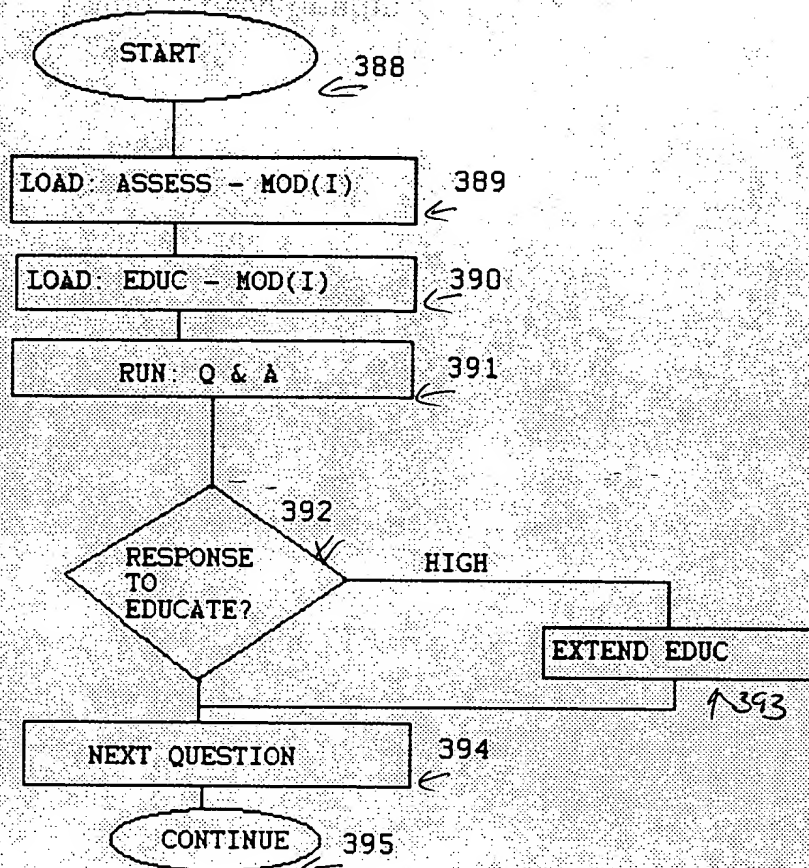

FIGURE 5B: GENERAL SCREENING MODULE

666040-44050250

FIGURE 5C

66010-110000

FIGURE S.1

Would you describe your heartburn as a pain or discomfort?

Touch a button to select:

- ☐ pain
- ☒ discomfort
- ☐ pain and discomfort

Choose ONE answer that best describes your heartburn. (You can add other terms later).

Touch a button to select:

- ☐ sharp, knife-like, jabbing
- ☐ pressing, crushing, heavy, or tight
- ☒ burning or hot
- ☐ bloating, swelling or fullness
- ☐ clamp-like or grabbing
- ☐ dull ache
- ☐ hunger-like growling or gnawing
- ☐ other

Where is the MAIN place you feel your heartburn? (You can tell us later if you also feel it other places).

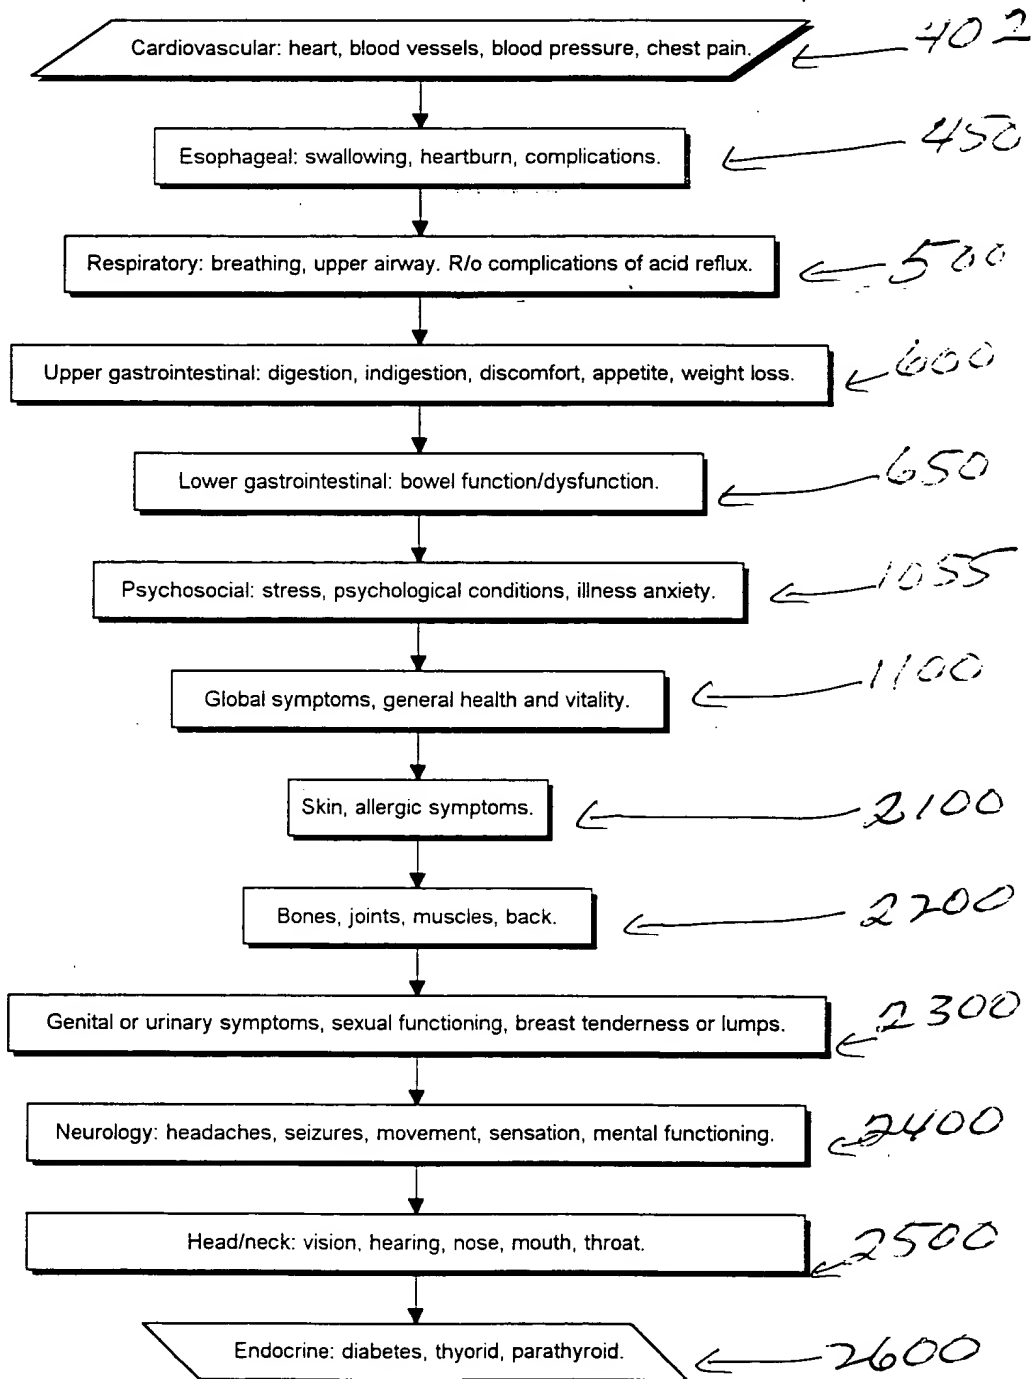

Touch a button to select:

- ☒ middle of my chest
- ☐ left side of my chest
- ☐ right side of my chest
- ☐ upper abdomen
- ☐ neck and/or jaw
- ☐ throat
- ☐ shoulders and/or arms
- ☐ none of the above

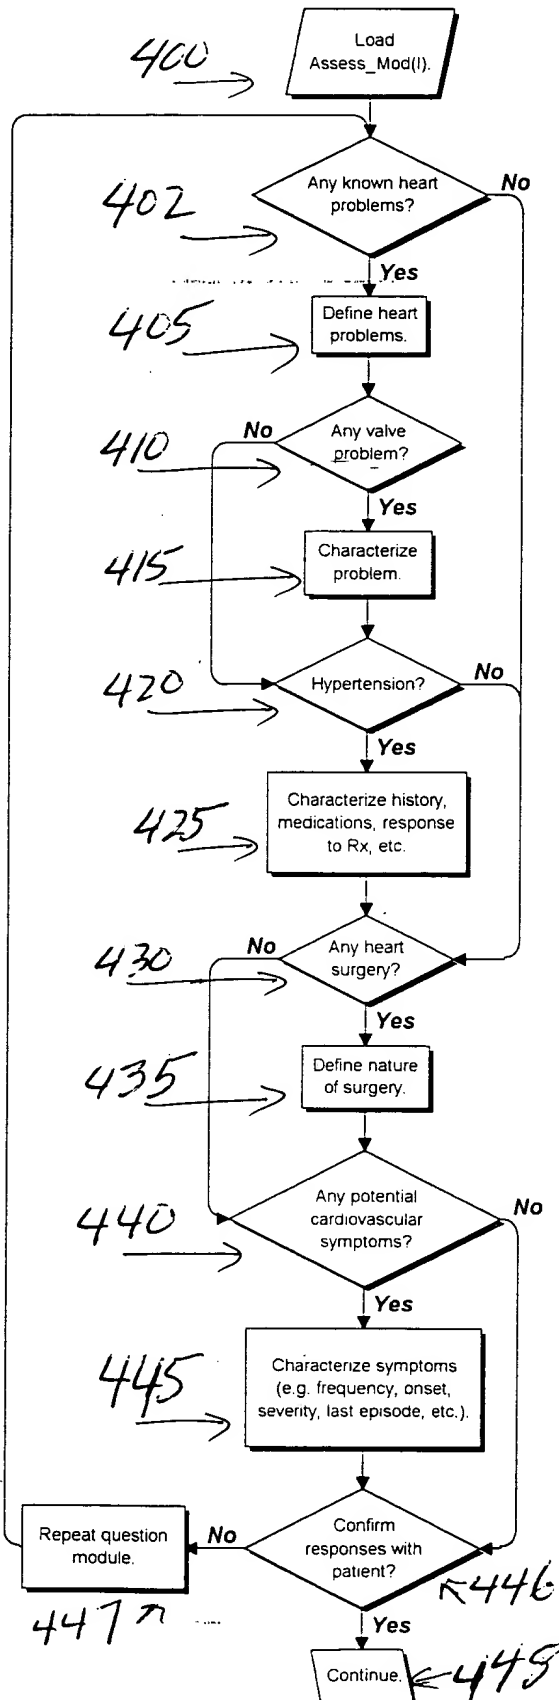

As we go through the next questions, we will refer to your heartburn as your burning, mid-chest discomfort.

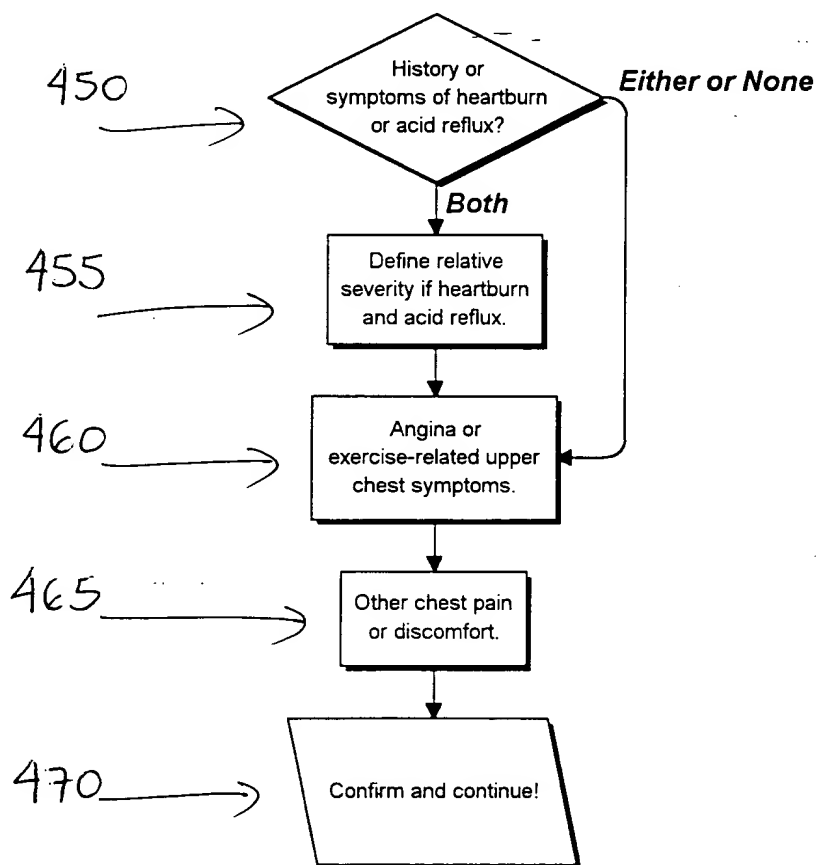

Screening Questions; "Review of Systems."

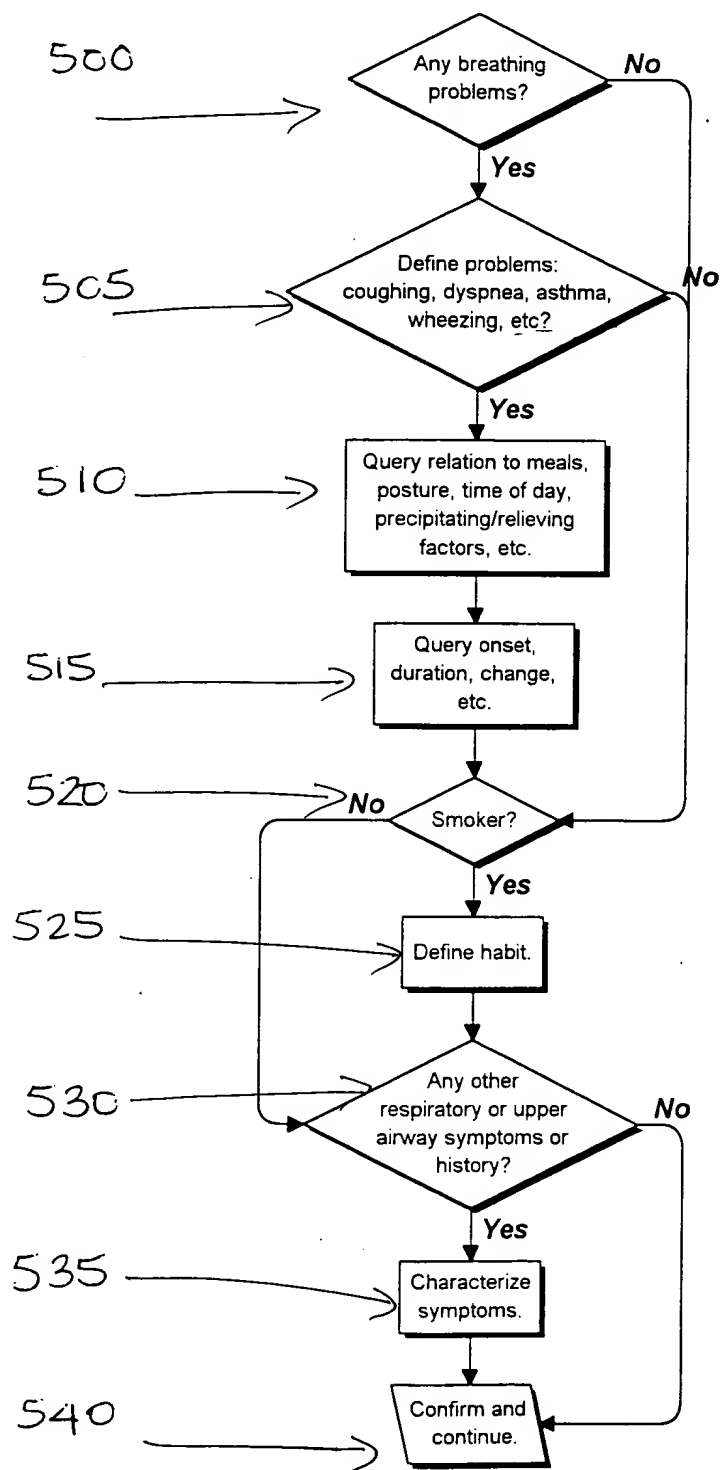

Screening for Cardiovascular Disease

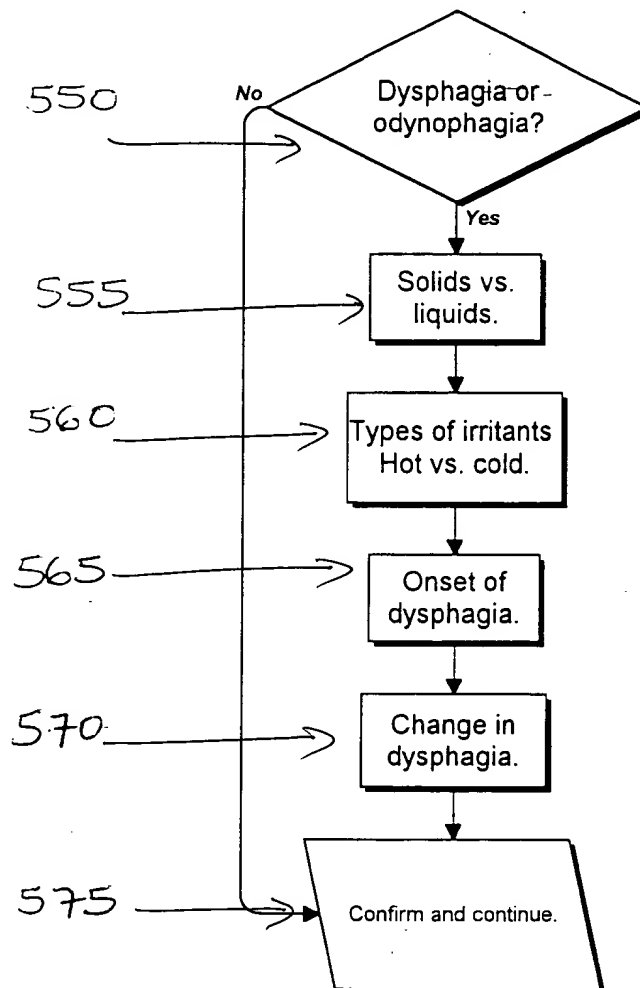

Screening for Acid Reflux and Chest Pain

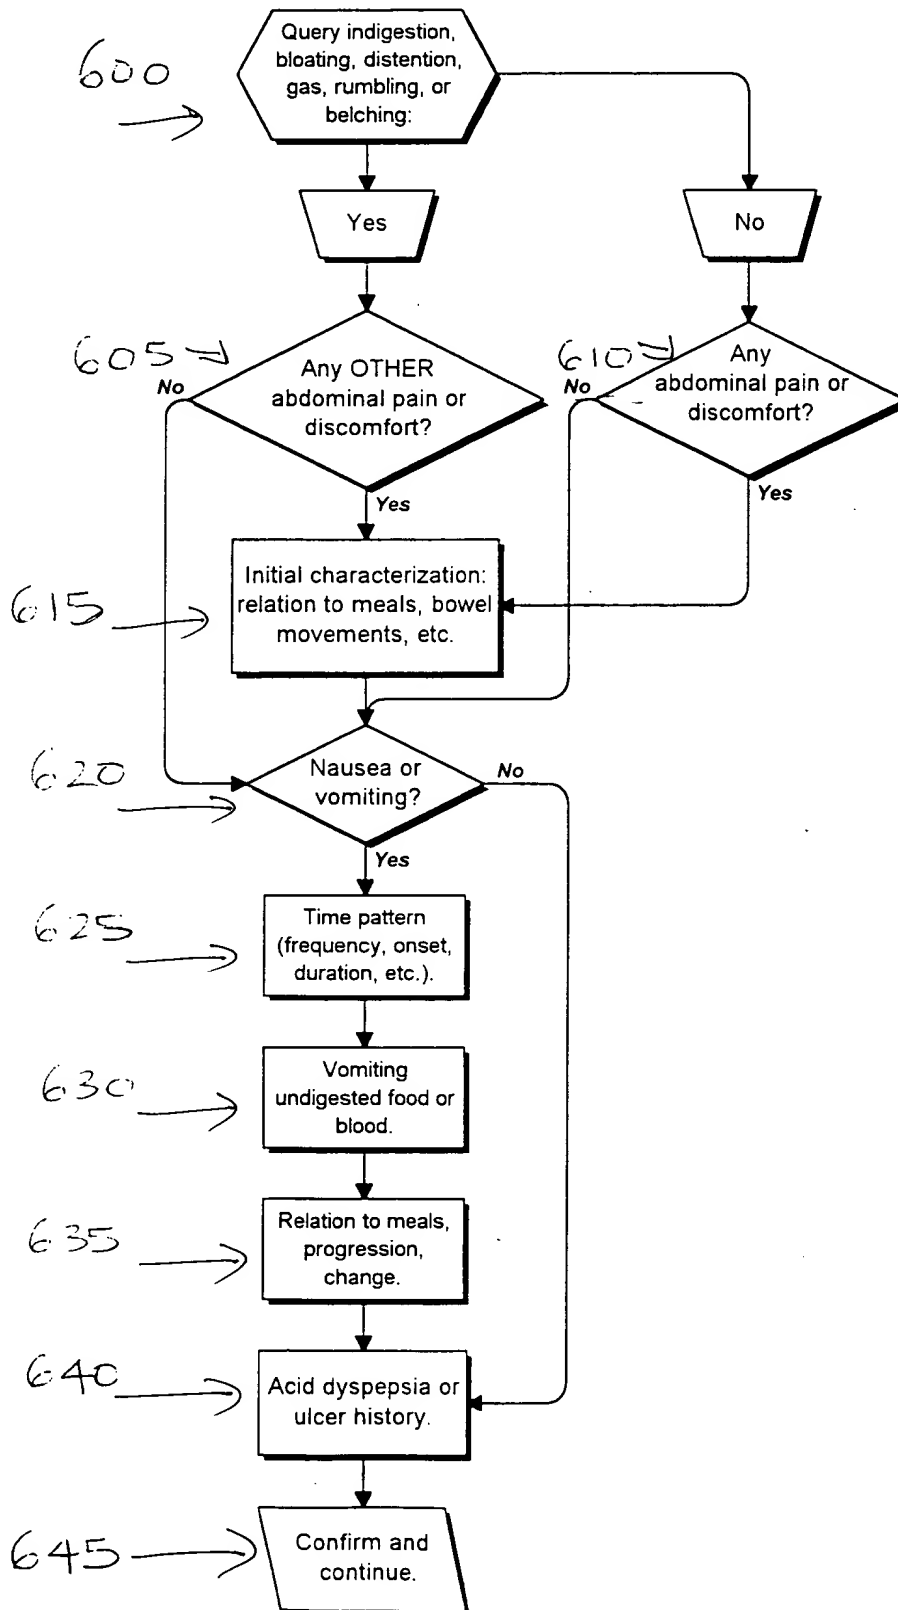

Screening for Respiratory Conditions and GER Complications

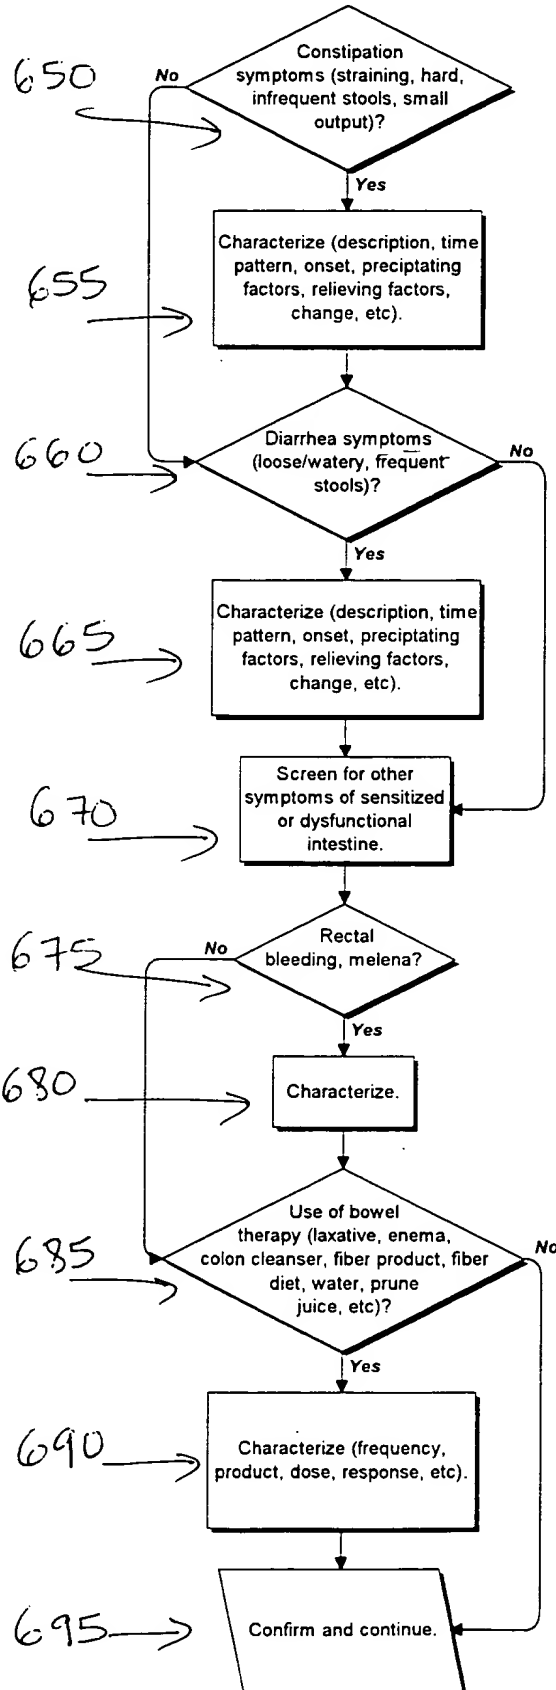

Screening for Dysphagia

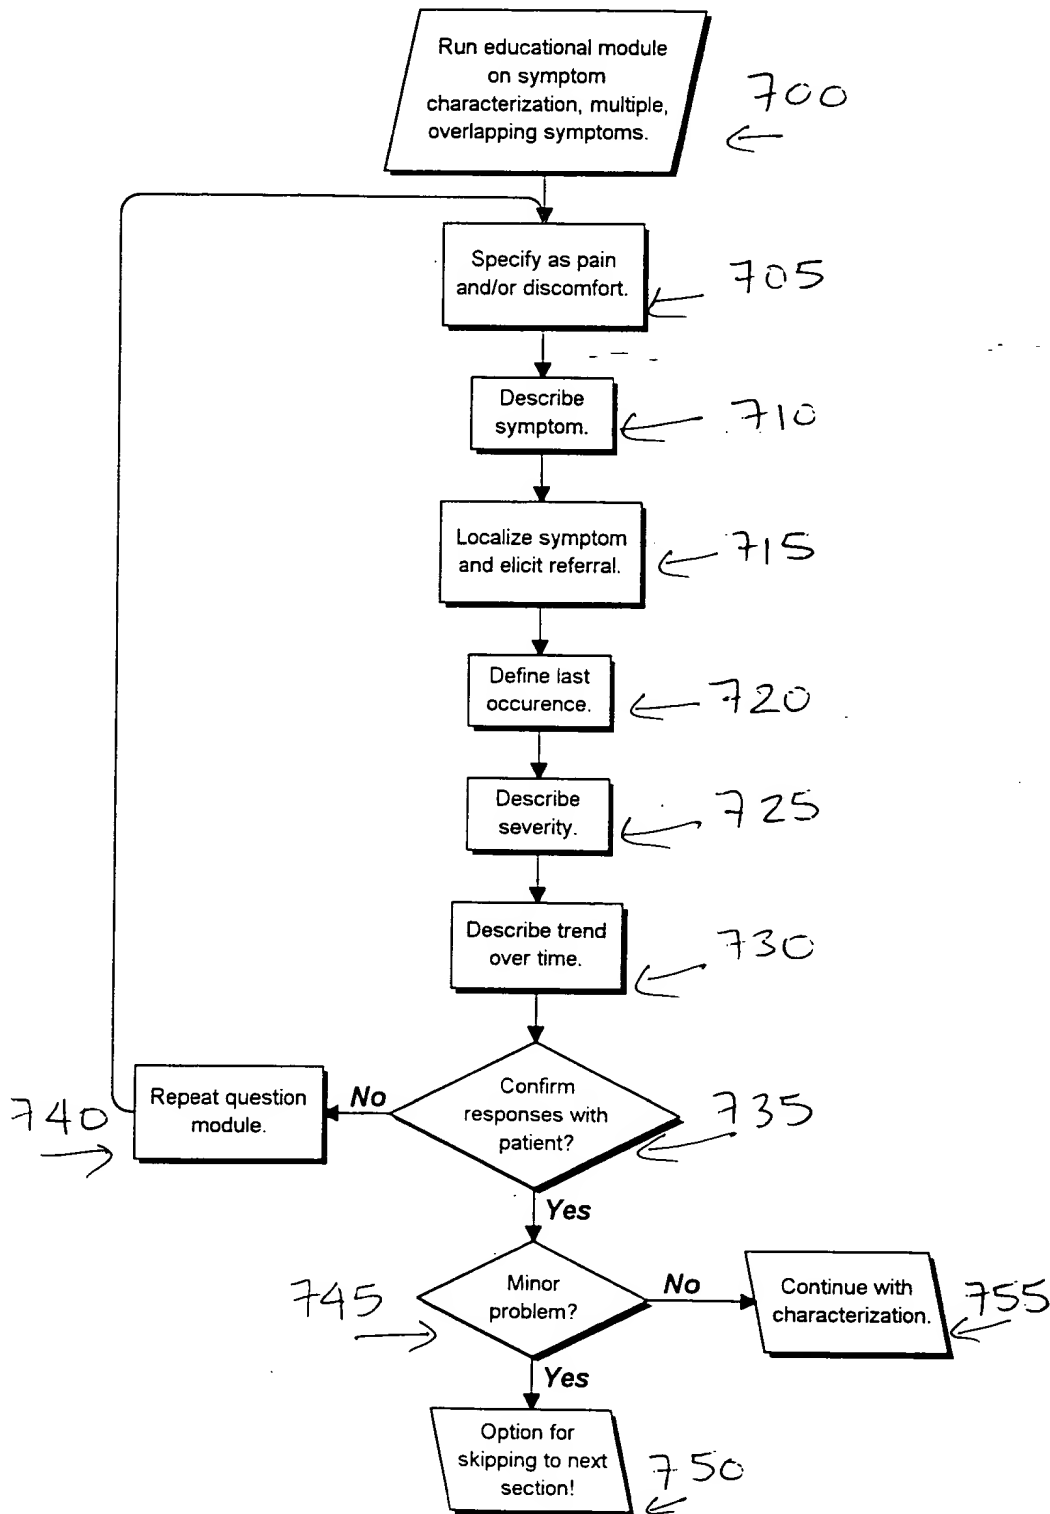

Screening for Abdominal Pain, Indigestion and Acid Dyspepsia

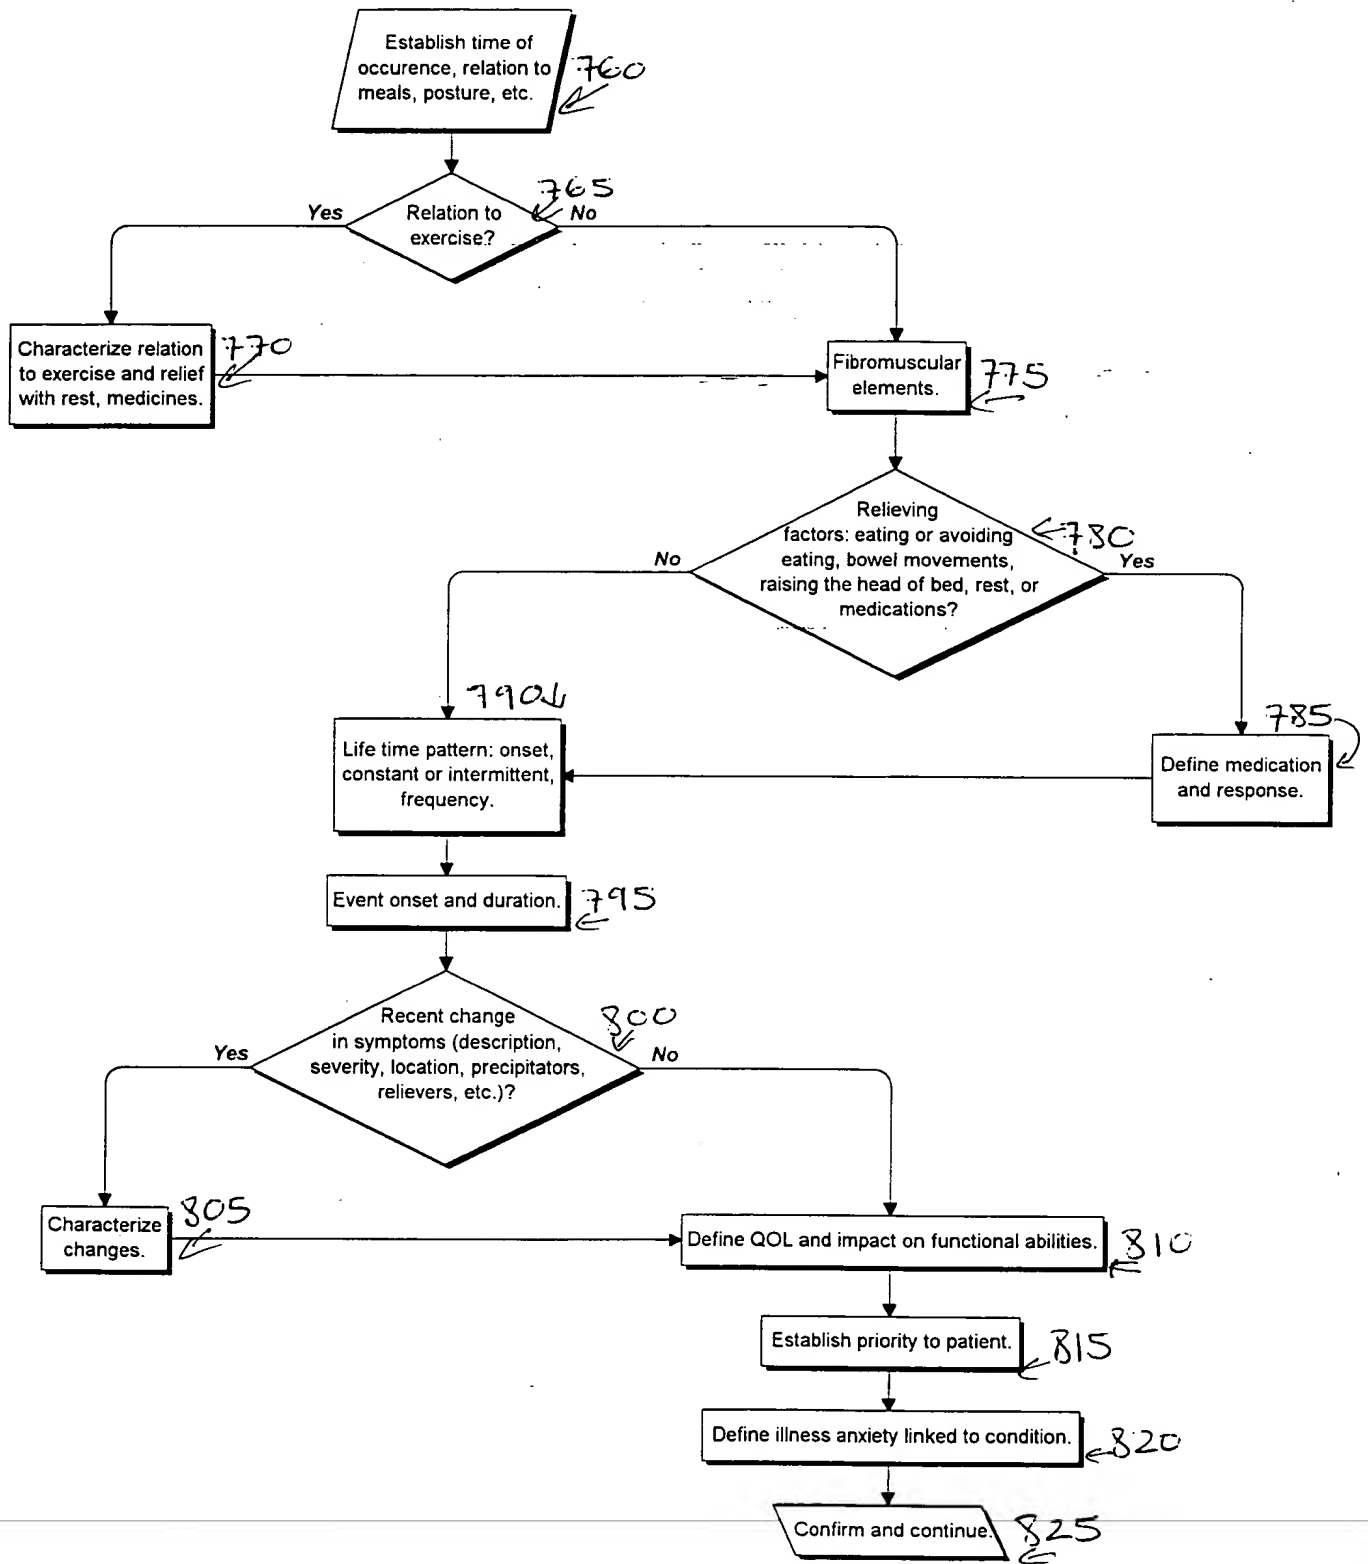

Assessing Constipation, Diarrhea and Irritable Bowel Syndrome.

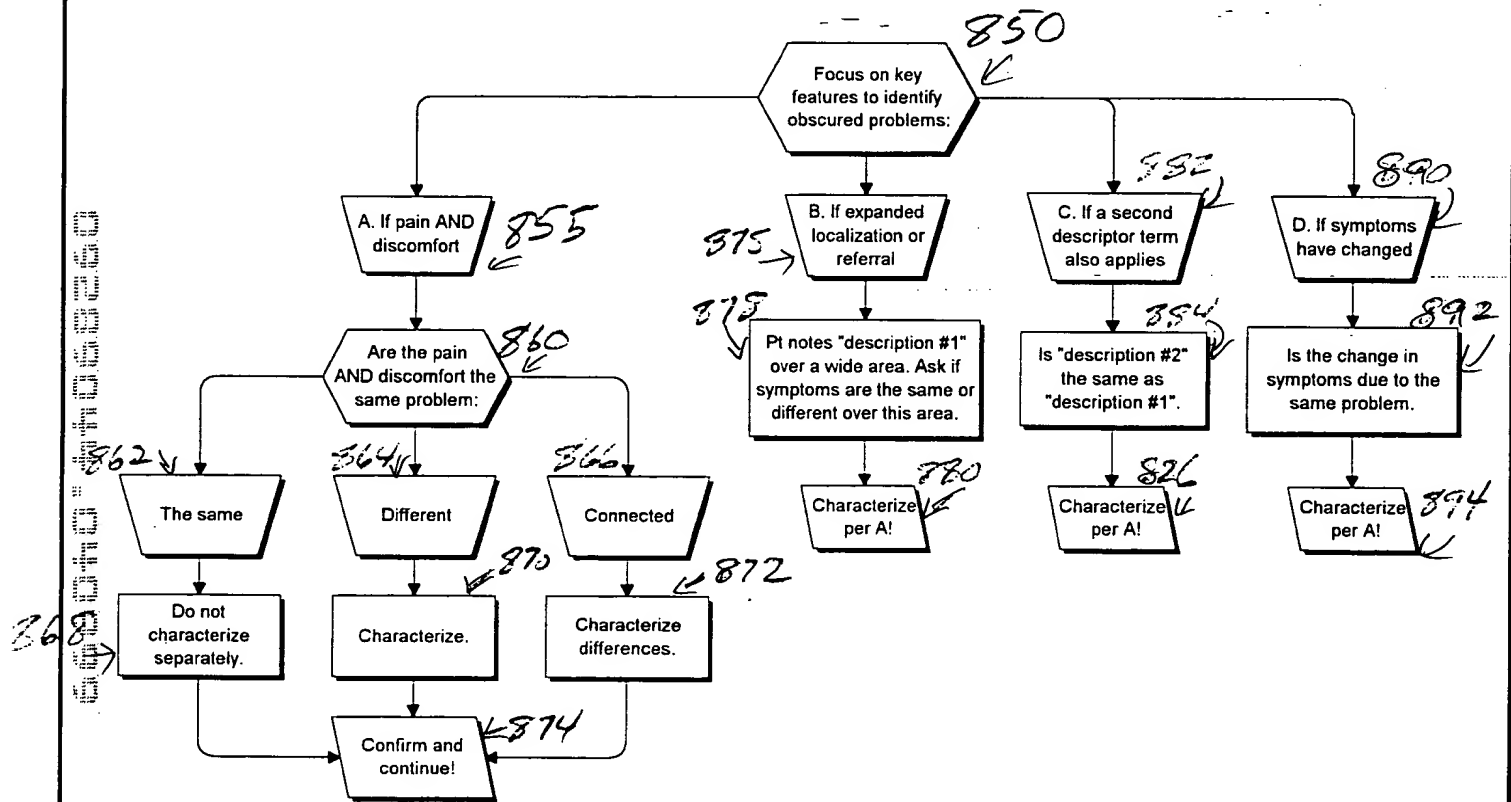

General Strategy for Symptom Characterization

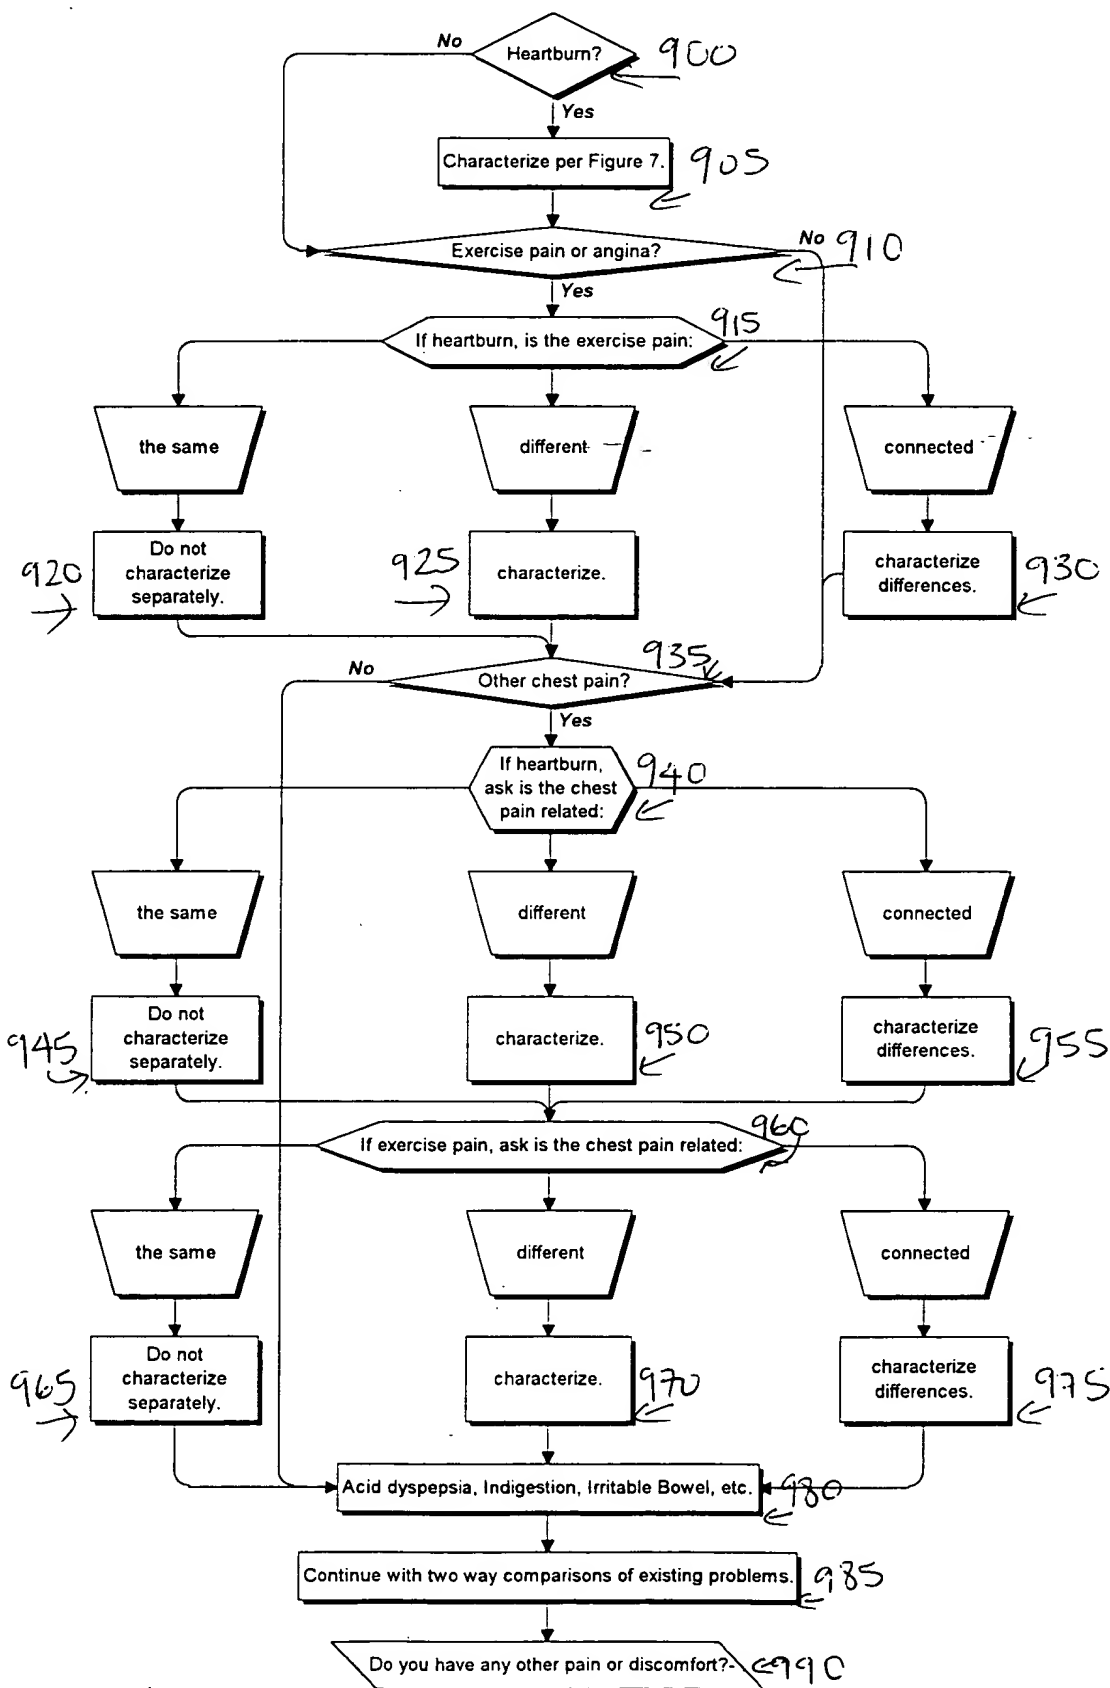

General Strategy for Symptom Characterization

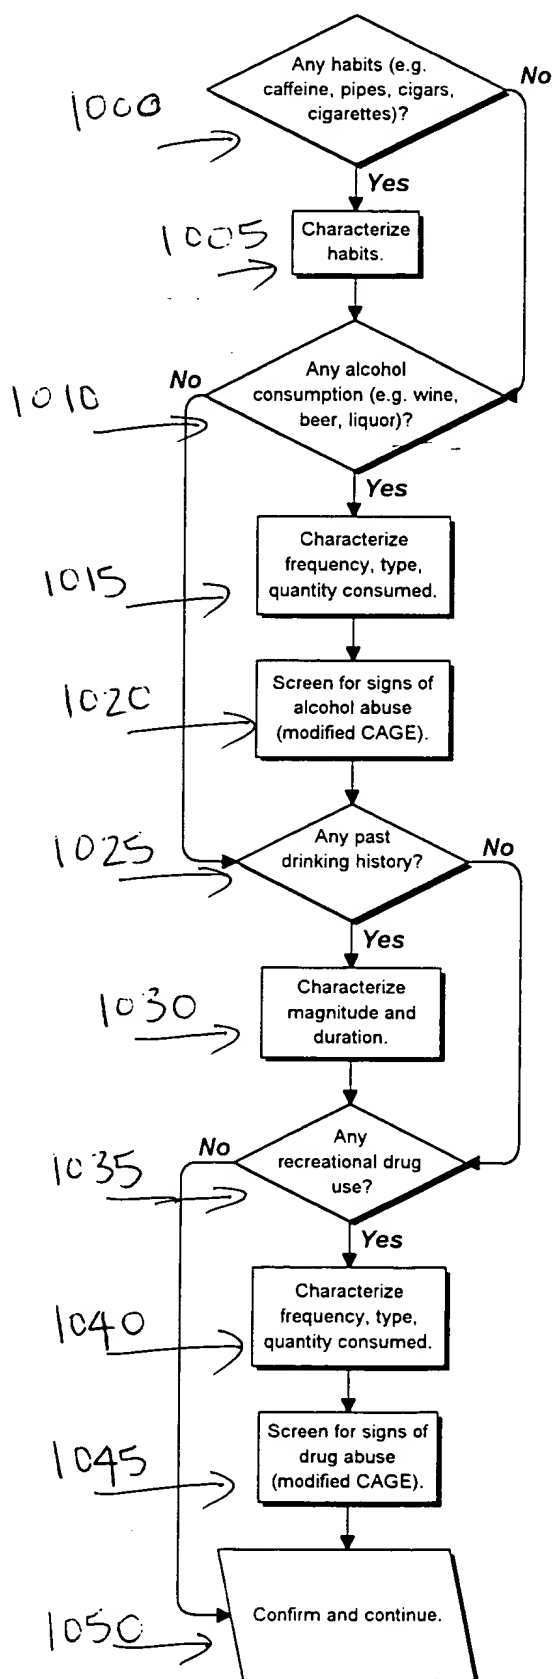

Detection of Obscured Symptom Complexes.

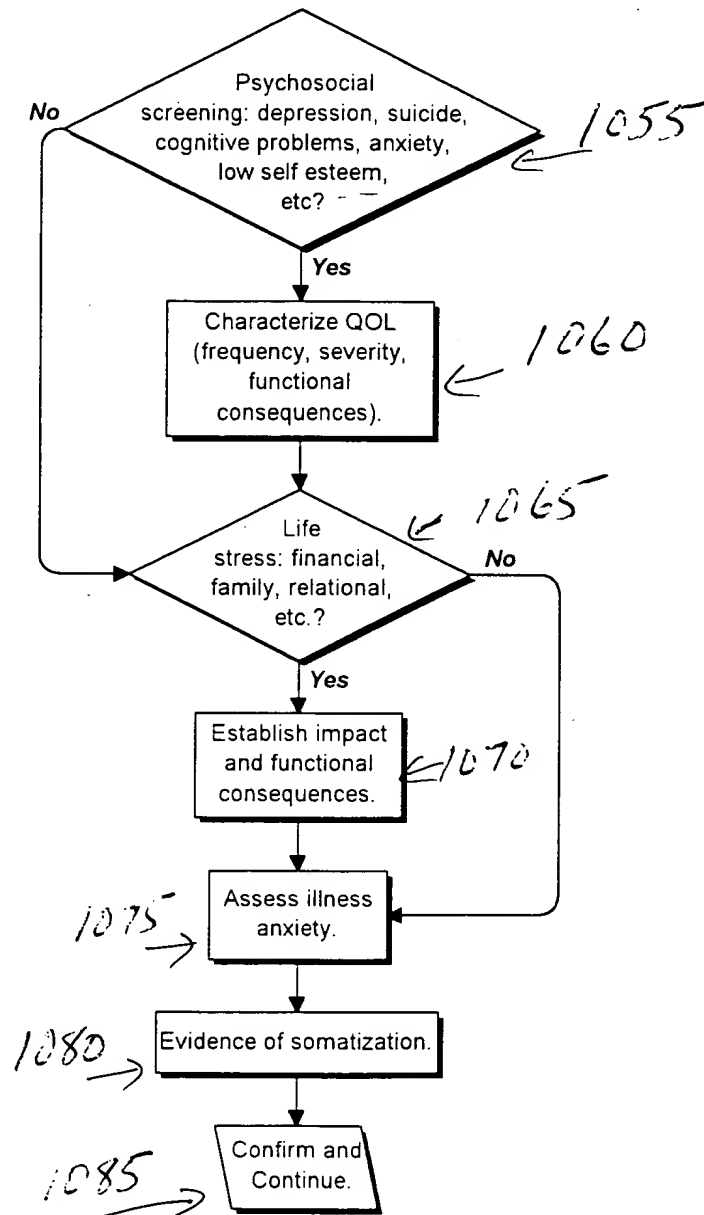

Sorting out multiple problems.

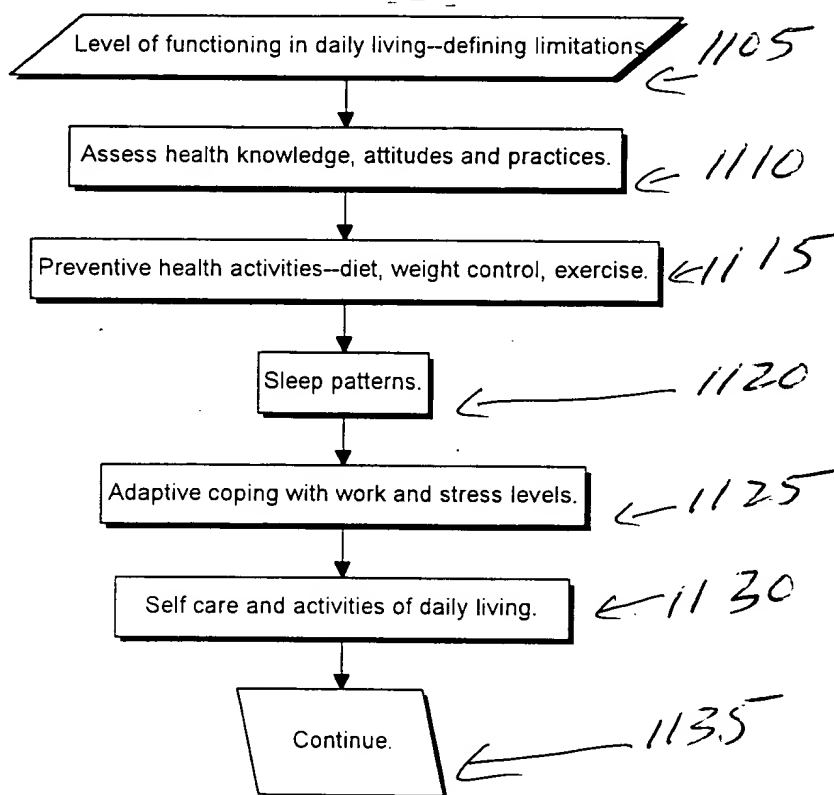

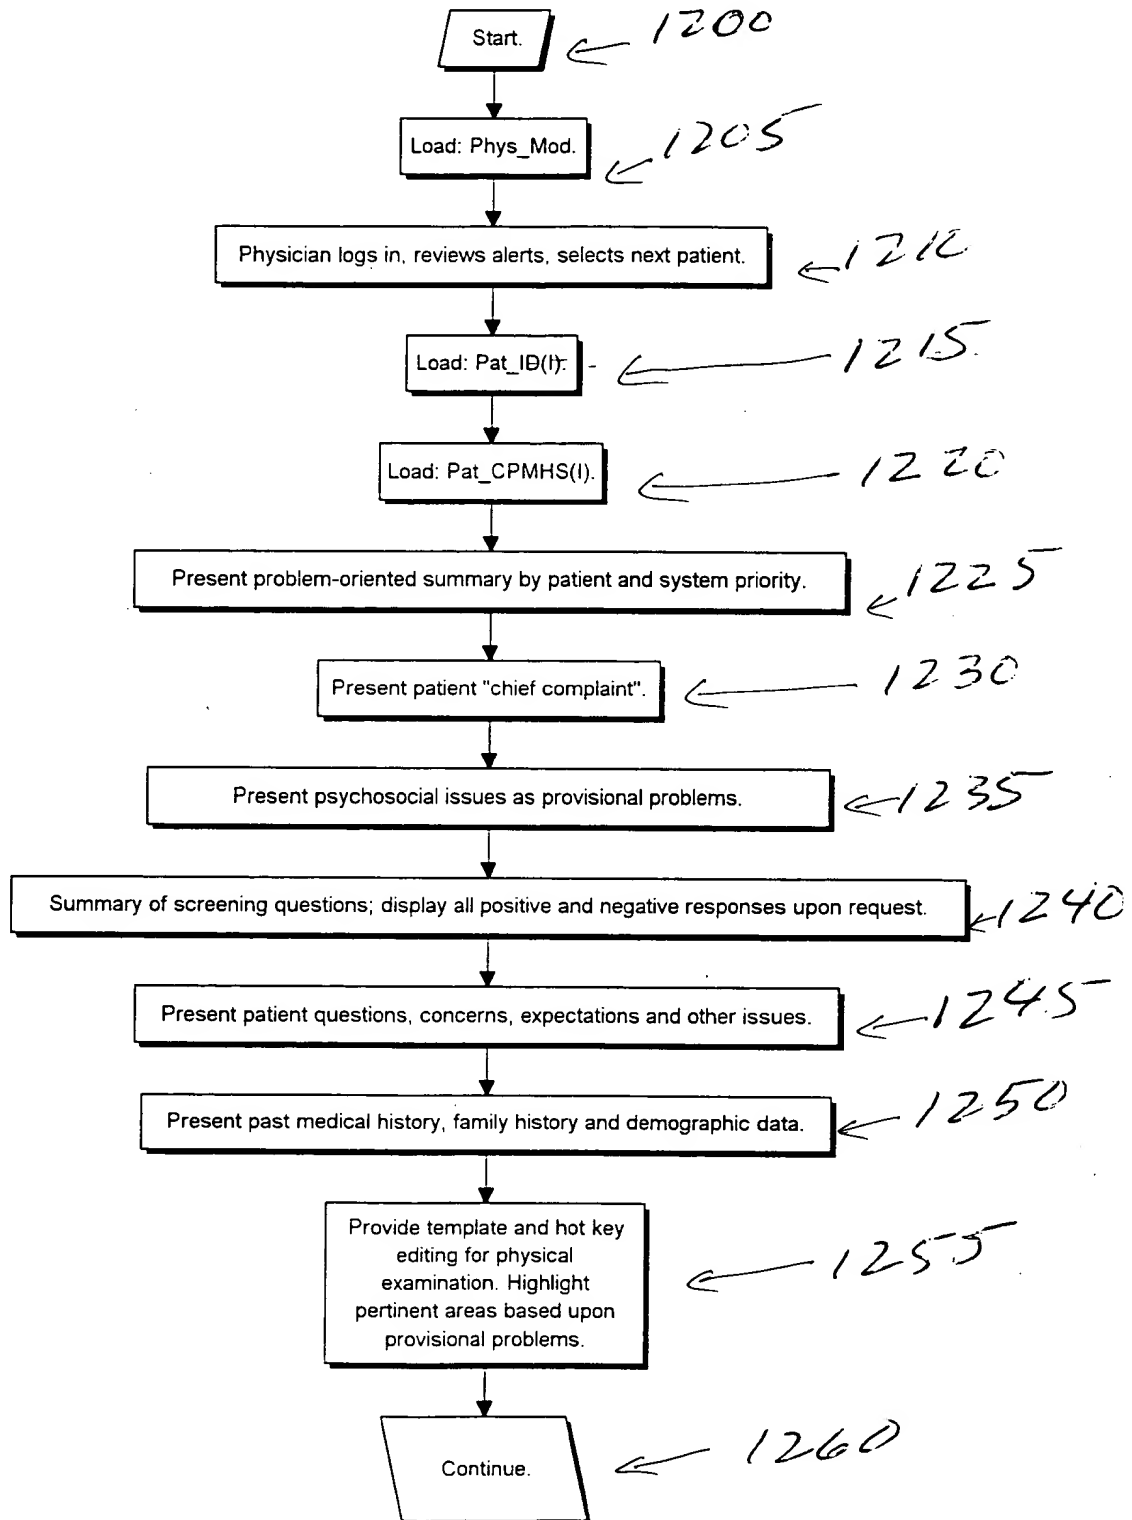

9B

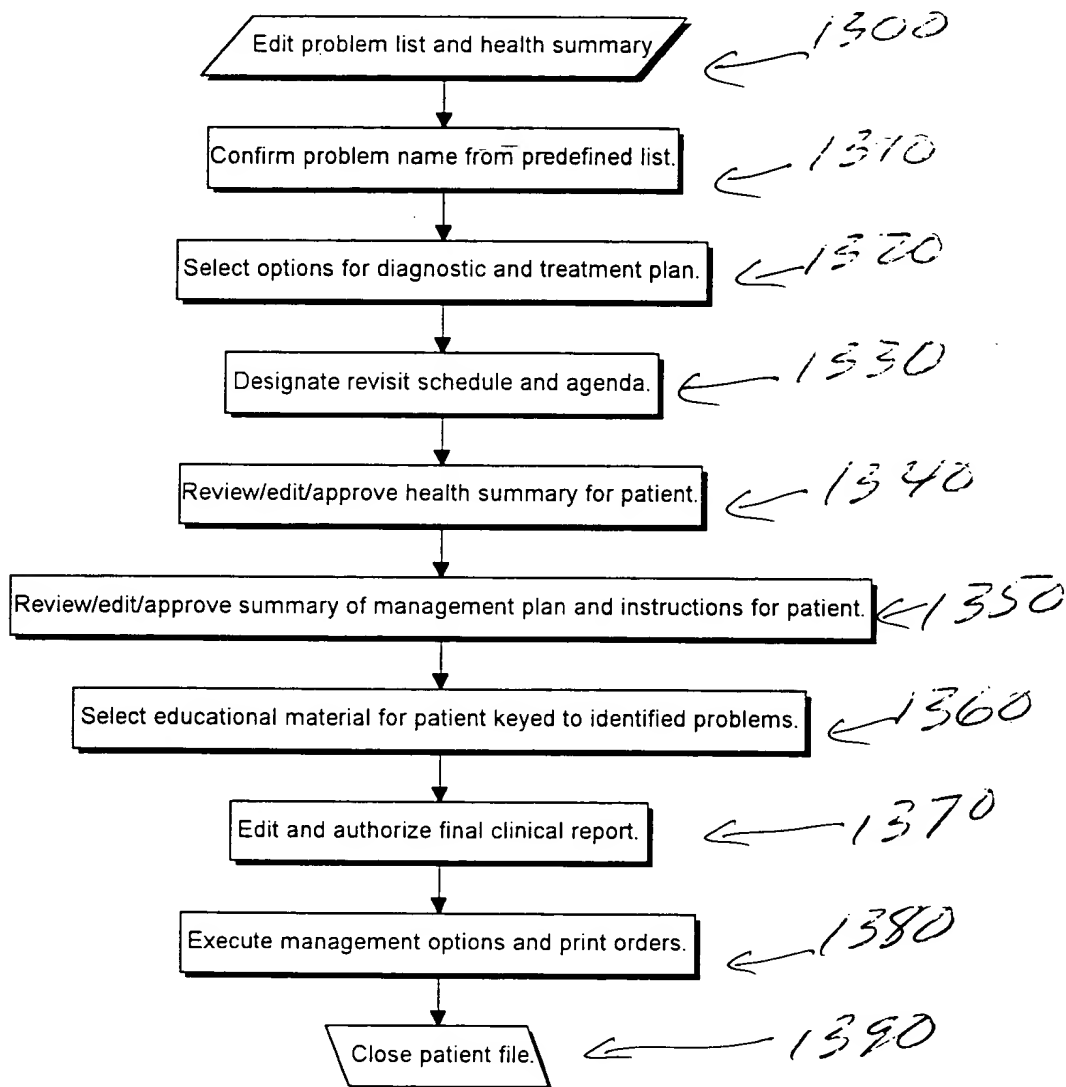

General Health Status:

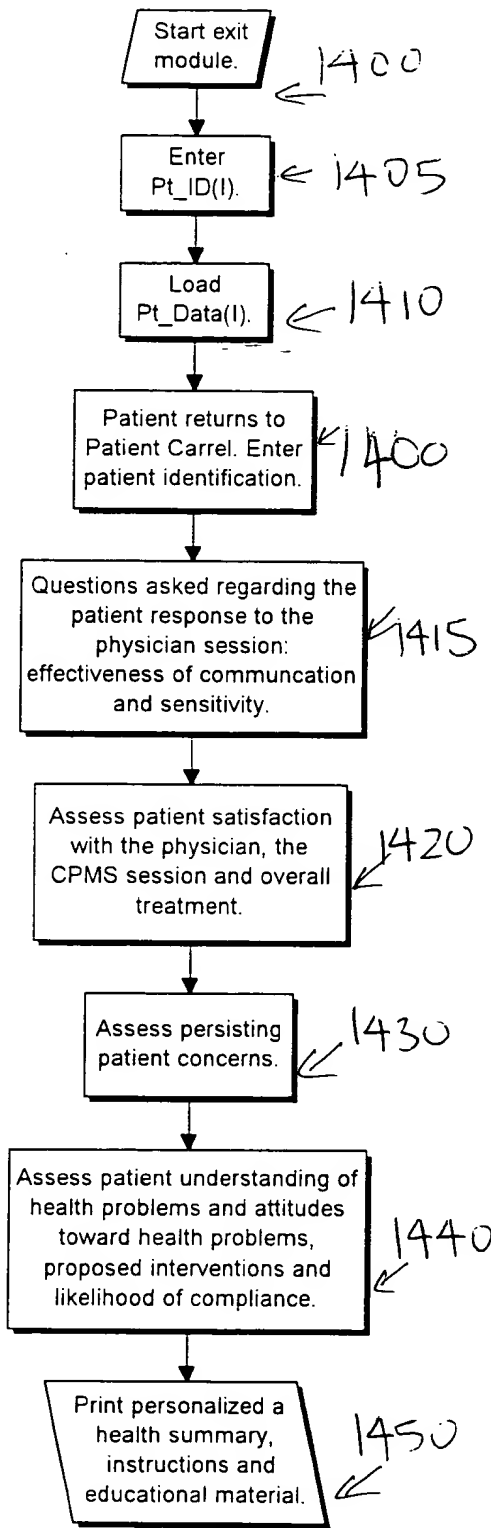

Patient Assessment Functions at the Physician Module.

Physician Management and Reporting Process.

Functions and Flow during Exit Session at the Patient Module:

Functions and Flow of the Patient Module during Revisits.

